Helios Table Lamp

Designed for warm, atmospheric spaces

Inspired by the monumental lines of ancient columns, Helios sets up a dialogue between past and present. Its vertical lines and subtle light create a sense of rhythm and order. The form represents architectural strength expressed with clarity, offering a soft contrast to its surroundings.

Helios, brings a quiet sculptural presence to any interior. Its soft, vertical rhythm, formed by the textured surface of its shade, gently diffuses light, creating a calm and inviting glow.
